

October
2023

www.democracyresearch.org

NEWSLETTER

Democracy Research Institute (DRI)

Democracy Research Institute is a public policy think tank that aims at promotion and protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms; establishment of the transparent and accountable governance system based on the rule of law and human rights; support to the establishment of free and fair society; support to the protection of human rights in conflict-affected regions; restoration of trust among

DRI activities in October

- The statement of the State Security Service is another attempt to attack the civil sector
- Calls for setting up the anti-Maidan movement contain elements of crime - The Ministry of Internal Affairs and the Security Service are late in responding
- What was the mood of Sokhumi on September 27?
- Objection to the "new" trade corridor of Georgia-Russia in Tskhinvali?!
- How will the placement of the Russian fleet in Ochamchire impact the transformation of the Georgian-Abkhazian conflict? Vision from the Gali district
- Israeli-Hamas military conflict intensifies the anti-Western rhetoric of far-right groups
- The State Security Service should provide information on the progress of investigation into the Partskhaladze case
- Consideration of the activity report of the State Security Service in the Parliament failed to ensure effective parliamentary oversight

- The authorities' response to the opening of the Russian naval base 4 kilometers from Anaklia is insufficient
- The newly built buildings transferred to IDPs in Tskaltubo are in bad condition
- New "feudals" of occupied South Ossetia
- Vazha Pshavela Telavi State Theater allows openly pro-Russian, violent Alt-Info to use theater building for meeting
- DRI condemns discrimination of political opponents by Georgian Dream on the ground of gender

DRI in Coalition activities

The authorities fail to respond to the sanctioning of judges and former chief prosecutor

We call on the Georgian authorities to stop protecting the interests of the sanctioned persons and distancing the country from the Western space by doing so, provide an adequate response, and take concrete steps to redress the damage caused to the country by the fact of sanctioning.