

NEWSLETTER

Democracy Research Institute is a public policy think tank that aims at promotion and protection of human rights and fundamental freedoms; establishment of the transparent and accountable governance system based on the rule of law and human rights; support to the establishment of free and fair society; support to the protection of human rights in conflict-affected regions; restoration of trust among

DRI ACTIVITIES IN NOVEMBER

Conflicts

- The authorities' ineffective response to another victim of the Russian occupation is striking
- Russia is de facto using Abkhazia's energy crisis to annex strategic facilities

Freedom of Expression

- The authorities are illegally restricting the freedom of assembly and expression of the participants in the Racha protests

Far-right groups

- The orchestrated rhetoric of Georgian Dream and far-right groups has intensified

DRI in Coalition activities

- Appeal of Georgian non-governmental organizations to the European Commission

We are ready to cooperate with all stakeholders to ensure that the European Commission's recommendations are fulfilled

- Information Integrity Coalition Reacts to the Recommendation to Grant Candidate Status to Georgia Alongside a New Condition to Address Disinformation

1135 DAYS OF IRAKLI BEBUA'S ILLEGAL IMPRISONMENT

The Democracy Research Institute calls on the Georgian authorities and the international community to use all political and legal mechanisms at their disposal to immediately release Irakli Bebuia from illegal imprisonment.

RALLIES UNDER OBSERVATION

The Democracy Research Institute started the project "Rallies Under Observation", within the framework of which it will observe all actions with political content. The goal of the project is to objectively observe the actions and realize the right to peaceful assembly and expression.

